Duties of Stewards

- 1 Stewards must be in attendance at the Showground at the hour appointed to receive Exhibits.
- 2 They are responsible for the proper classification of Exhibits, and all Exhibits must be place together ready for judging.
- 3 They will obtain the award books from the Secretary and deliver them to the Judges, and direct them to the Exhibits they are appointed to judge.
- 4 As the Exhibits are removed by the Exhibitors at the close of the Show, the Stewards will check them off in their books.
- 5 They shall remove all Exhibitors and other persons from the vicinity of the Judges while they are judging.
- 6 It is suggested that after the Exhibits have been judged, the Stewards should go through their Exhibits and re-arrange them, keeping Exhibits in each class together as far as possible, but seeing that the vacant places in the stalls are filled up with the Exhibits, and that prize-taking Exhibits be brought to the front so that visitors may easily read the awards on the cards.
- 7 It is the duty of the Chief Steward in each section to decide on all protests.
- 8 The Protest Committee will adjudicate on any disputes referred by the Chief Steward of any Section, after the protest has been lodged and the rules governing protests.

Side Shows

The controlling of Side Shows is in the rules of the Showmen's Guild and is also under the supervision of the Groundsman, Rod Hoare.

Regulations

- 1 All entry fees must be forwarded with entry forms, otherwise the entry will not be accepted.
- 2 Exhibits, other than livestock, should be at the Society's Ground the day before the exhibition, or, at any rate, not later than 8:00 am on the first day.
- 3 The sum of $36.00 qualifies for membership of the Society.
- 4 The Exhibition is open to all comers, except where specially provided to the contrary.
- 5 Exhibitors who have entered in a Section, except Section A, who find they are unable to compete, are requested to notify the Secretary at least on the day previous to the opening of the Show, so as to enable the Stewards to make arrangements.
